YOUR MARKETING PARTNER

Exhibiting at GEMS '26 delivers high visibility for your company, products and services. GEMS partners with you to create a multi-media marketing campaign that makes your investment worthwhile!

Web - Event websites detail your involvement. There's also an event app available to all attendees depending on sponsorship, along with educational programming.

Inbox - Months of cumulative emails are delivered leading up to the event highlighting event offerings and promoting pre-registration. These drops are sent to more than 50,000 prospective attendees.

Direct Mail - Direct mail pieces are sent to more than 50,000 industry buyers.

PR - Press releases are delivered to trade and consumer press outlets.

Social Media Marketing - Social media is an important part of GEMS's complete marketing plan. It promotes and announces new exhibitors, booth locations and detailed company information to our followers. Purchased posts are also a part of the event campaign. Free Invitation Passes - Let GEMS help you invite your customers—at no cost to you. Distribute those free passes to your sales staff, as well as to current and potential customers. Include them as stuffers in your invoices, mailed or digital.

The GEMS team is ready and waiting to send out invitations and free passes to your customers. The only thing we need from you is the list of mail recipients, which shall remain confidential.

Event Program - Attendees and exhibitors are sure to see your company name in the event program. This opens the potential for your company to be exposed to friends and business associates as the directory makes its rounds before, during and after the event.
